Date and Remarks	Orders of the Tribunal
Item No. 5 10th December, 2014	We enquired from the Learned Counsel for the State as to what is the response of the State with regard to the observations made and the directions contained in the order dated 04.08.2014 on various issues which have been recorded therein. Learned Counsel for the State submitted that he has not received any response from the State though he has sent a communication on 18.09.2014. We would accordingly direct the State to submit their response to the issues which have been highlighted in the order dated 04.08.2014 on the next date and the Director, Town and Country Planning for the State of Madhya Pradesh along with any other responsible officer associated with the Town Planning shall remain personally present before the Tribunal on the said date. As far as the issue with regard to installation of the Sewage Treatment Plant at Mandideep is concerned, before us two letters have been produced by Shri Sachin K.Verma appearing for the State by which in the letter dated 08.12.2014, in response to the letter of Municipality, Mandideep, certain queries with regard to setting up of STPs at Mandideep and granting administrative sanctions have been raised by the Government. It has also been brought to our notice that on 09.12.2014 the Municipality, Mandideep is giving information as required under the letter dated 08.12.2014. Shri Sachin K.Verma assured us that on the basis of the Municipality, Mandideep a decision at the level of the Government would be taken shortly and conveyed to the Municipal Authority, Mandideep.

Let the matter be listed on 24th December, 2014.
